

speaking in ΤΦΝ&ΠΞΣ

Four kids. Four languages. One city. One world.

As Seen on PBS

At a time when 31 states have passed "English Only" laws, four pioneering families put their children in public schools where, from the first day of kindergarten, their teachers speak mostly Chinese or Spanish.

Speaking in Tongues follows four diverse kids on a journey to become bilingual. This charming story will challenge you to rethink the skills that Americans need in the 21st century.

Winner of the Audience Award at the San Francisco International Film Festival.

Learn More

"A lively, smart & timely film about the new globalized world."

Graham Leggat
Executive Director,
San Francisco Film Society

Watch The Film

Find a screening
Host a screening

Read Our Blog

Stories, news and perspectives on multilingual education

"An illuminating lens into the increasingly relevant topic of multilingualism in a globalized world."
NorthWest Film Forum

"A story about human aspirations and how language divides and combines...really moving. "
John Wranovics,
Author, Agee and Chaplin

"Speaks directly to one of the important issues facing our diverse society."
Laurie Olsen
Executive Director, California Tomorrow

"Provide[s] valuable insight into the issues and challenges that schools across America are facing."
Brett Lovejoy
Executive Director
American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages

"Moving, informative and fascinating to watch."
Jennifer Austin Ph.D.
Department of Classical and Modern Languages
Rutgers University

